OXFORD FCU INVESTS IN RECOVERY

[Mexico, ME, September 24, 2024] Oxford Federal Credit Union (OFCU) has partnered with the Larry Labonte Recovery Center (LLRC) in Rumford, Maine, to provide operational funding and educational support.

OFCU's commitment to LLRC's mission includes a significant financial contribution, a dedicated space at the center named the 'OFCU Recovery Meeting Room', and the ability to offer financial education classes there.

Dr. Lonnie Labonte, President and co-founder of LLRC shared, "The partnership with Oxford Federal Credit Union is a great example of the unity displayed throughout our county. Communities like ours are worth fighting for, and this partnership will give our team of talented coaches the resources they need to support recovery in our region. Our mission wouldn't be possible without great community partners like OFCU."

OFCU CEO/President, Joann Bisson added, "By supporting those in recovery, and helping to end the stigma of recovery, we hope to help make the River Valley area healthier, safer and more vibrant for everyone."

The Larry Labonte Recovery Center is a nonprofit organization dedicated to providing resources and support to individuals facing substance use disorder and mental health challenges. It is a safe and inclusive place for people to access help without fear of judgment. Visit llrecoverycenter.com, call (207) 418-4983 or email info@llrecoverycenter.com for more information.
